Five Stories to Be Erected on Cliff St. Site-Building Leased by Drug House.

DYCKMAN BLOCK IN DEAL

The old style loft building at 27 Cliff street, extending to Ryder's alley, has been sold to the 27 Cliff Street Corpora-tion, represented by Stoddard & Mark as atorneys. Title to the property was transferred yesterday. The buyers have contracted with the Standard Concrete-Steel Company to build from plans by James S. Maher a five story fireproof building covering the entire plot of 4,250 square feet which has been leased for square feet which has been leased for fifteen years from May 1, 1916, at an $200. aggregate rental approximating $200,-000 to Thurston & Braidich, regarded as the leading dealers in crude drugs. The proposed building, which will have a minimum carrying capacity of 250 pounds to the square foot, is to be equipped with two electric elevators nkler system, a roof garden, showens and other improvements calcu lated to make it the best of its type yet erected east of William street. Its com-pletion will represent an investment of about $150,000 and will mark a noteworthy development in this section, where property has been practically at a standstill for some years. The Charles F. Noyes Company negotiated the sale. Hector W. Thomas was associated with the Noyes company in the lease of the
